

“Hirogaru Sky! “PreCure” is a TV anime produced by Toei Animation that was produced by Asahi Broadcasting Television and broadcast every Sunday from 8:30 to 9:00 on the TV Asahi network from February 5, 2023 to January 28, 2024. It is the 20th work in the “Pretty Cure” series,[3][4] and the 18th Precure.

The abbreviation is “Hiropuri” [5][Note 1]. The catchphrase is “To the expanding world! Hop! Step! Jump!” overview

This work marks the 20th work in the series, and is officially positioned as a 20th anniversary work. [Note 2] Ten Washio of Toei Animation, who was the first producer of the series and is the executive producer of this work, expressed his gratitude, saying, “I believe that I was able to continue this series for this long thanks to everyone’s support.” [4]

In this work, the motif is “the sky,” the theme is “hero,” and the keyword is “the world that expands through knowledge.” [7] Regarding the sky, Washio said, “The sky is endlessly expansive, a magnificent world that is endlessly blue and full of transparency. The protagonist of this work is a character who embodies the sky that everyone imagines,” and regarding the “hero,” ABC Animation Producer Kou Tanaka said, “The PreCure series is sometimes described as a “transforming heroine.” However, this time, we deliberately chose the theme of “hero”. In the history of PreCure, which has evolved and expanded in various ways, what has remained unchanged is the image of these girls who have carved out a difficult path with their own hands and taken the lead and encouraged everyone. I chose this theme because I wanted to reconsider her appearance from a “heroine” to a “hero,” and added, “I chose this theme as a culmination of this turning point year by portraying the hero figure that the PreCure series has created. We will deliver it to you,” he said enthusiastically. [3][4]

Based on this concept, the main character of this work, Sora Harewatar (Cure Sky), is the first main character in the series to use blue as his image color instead of the pink that has been used so far [8], and even in the real world. The main character is a girl from another world, rather than a Japanese girl. In addition, Tsubasa Yunagi (Cure Wing) is the first regular character of a 12-year-old boy to become a male Pretty Cure [Note 3], and Seigieha (Cure Butterfly) is an 18-year-old adult female Pretty Cure [Note 4]. It is done [9].

Among the voice actors appearing, Ai Kakuma, who plays the role of Mashiro Nijigaoka (Cure Prism), played the healing animal Labyrin in the 2020 broadcast of “Healing Good PreCure”, and will be re-cast as a regular member of PreCure in this work. It became. In addition, Kakuma said, “All the time and experience I was involved in PreCure became my treasure,” and based on the previous experience, “I can’t believe I will be able to participate in PreCure for another year...And this time... As a Precure...I keep thinking, “Eh?? A dream??”, she commented happily. [10]

Like previous series works, this work also uses text broadcasting and data broadcasting. In the data broadcast, you can play the Sugoroku game “Dice Roll! PreCure Collection,” where you roll the dice and collect all the Precures from all the past works of the mass that stopped in an album. On the other hand, some of the content that was implemented in the previous two works is not implemented in this work (details will be described later) [11] [Note 5].

In addition, this work was broadcast all year round for the first time in four years since “Star Twinkle Precure”, which was broadcast from February 2019 to January 2020, without any interruptions or shortening of the number of broadcast episodes or duration. Note 6].

In the final episode of this work, the main character of the next work will not appear in the main story, which has been done since “Mahou Tsukai PreCure!”, and Cure Wonderful of the next work “Wandaful PreCure!” will only appear in the baton touch video [ep 1]. story

Skyland is a world floating in the sky. That day was the birthday of the young princess of the kingdom, Elle, but Elle was taken advantage of by Kabaton, a monster from the Underg Empire, and was taken away. Sora Harewatar, a brave girl who aspires to be her hero, enters the warp space to save Elle, and before she knows it, she ends up in a completely different world, Solashid City.

Sora was confused by the fact that she had come to a completely different world with different culture and customs, but at that time she met a girl from Sorashid City, Mashiro Nijigaoka, and she lived with Elle, protecting Elle as a Pretty Cure and going to Skyland. She will fight to return to her home.
Character
Precure

Mashiro and Ageha are residents of “Sorashido City,” while Sora, Tsubasa, and Elle are from “Skyland.” In addition to Sora and El who have moved since the first episode, Ageha has also moved to the Nijigaoka family in Sorashid City since the 18th episode (see the section on St. Ageha for details). Tsubasa has been living with the Nijigaoka family for about a year.

As mentioned later, Sora and Mashiro are in the 2nd year class 2 of the middle school class of “Private Sorashid Academy” [Note 7], and Ageha is attending “Sorashid Welfare Childcare College” to become a nursery teacher, as described later.

In the first person, Sora, Mashiro, and Ageha are “me,” Tsubasa is “me,” and Elle is “elu” (Elle in girl form is “me”).

According to Ten Washio, what the members have in common is that they are people who can act together, and that they are not portrayed as being in a leadership position just because they are boys or older. [15]

She is extremely athletic and trains hard every day to become a hero like the person she admires (Sharala) who saved her when she was young. Because of this, she often gets invited to join her club activities [ep 6]. She is a user of Skyland Divine Fist and can split a huge rock in half with a single blow of her bare hands [ep 7]. However, since she was a child, she had spent every day devoted to training alone, so she had no friends until she met Mashiro, and at first, when she had a problem, she couldn’t see her surroundings and often tried to solve it alone [ep 8]. As she and Mashiro deepen their bond through the PreCure battle, she learns the importance of cooperation.

She was reunited with Sharala, the person she admired, when she returned to Skyland, and when she learned that Sharala had remembered her encounter with herself, she seemed moved. .

In her daily life, even though she is swayed by Sora's tension, we can often see her side as a common sense person, such as calmly commenting on Sora's natural stupidity that she sometimes shows. On the other hand, she has a strong desire to help Sora as a PreCure, and she encourages Sora when he tries to deal with her problems alone, making her realize that she is an irreplaceable partner. However, after witnessing her own father fly once, she discovered her potential for flight, and even after coming to Solaseed City, she continued to teach herself aerodynamics. She continued to have a longing for the sky, including studying [ep 13].

During a surprise attack from the sky by Kabaton using a UFO-type Lamborg, PreCure's abilities were awakened while fighting in a living state to protect El [ep 14]. Since then, she has been able to fly as a Precure, so she no longer reads books about flight, but the knowledge about the weather that she gained in the process was useful, and the things she learned will continue to spread in the future. Her favorite car is a four-wheel drive car, which she calls "Piyo-chan."

One day, she encountered Sora and Mashiro being attacked by Lamborg, and she saw them transform into PreCure, which led to her learning the secret of PreCure for the first time. She has since become a support role for Precure.

She supports Mashiro, who was hesitant about becoming a Precure due to her own complexes [ep 11], and sees that Sora is hesitant to express her true feelings to Mashiro and cheers her up with makeup [ep 11]. 2] and has a caring personality. Since her real name is unknown, her name "Elle" was named by Sora for convenience based on her voice, but it turns out to be her real name [ep 7]. She transforms into PreCure and has the mysterious power to create "Sky Tone" which gives PreCure new powers.

She comes to Sorashid City with Sora after being kidnapped by Kabaton.

When he went out, he was initially carried by Sora and Mashiro in the sling that Yoyo gave him, but when he saw Sky being overwhelmed by Lamborg's attack, he became worried, so the sling changed to a rainbow-colored boat-shaped one. After that, he was able to move freely [ep 7] [ep 8].

In reality, she is the "child of destiny" entrusted to the king and queen by Ichibanboshi, who has the power to save Skyland. The couple who entrusted the child to him have raised him like their own for the future, even though he is not their biological child.
